DETAILED ACTION

Response to amendments

1. The reply filed 7/6/05 through 7/15/05 consists of changes in the specification, changes in the drawings, amendments to claims 1-2 and remarks related to rejection of claims.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 2 is objected to because of the following informalities: Line 2: "the head" has no antecedent basis. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Market (5975939).

Market (Figures 1-10) shows a connector assembly security device having a screw 10, a hollow trunco-conical part 24 open at its two ends and a side opening on its wall intended for closing on the screw when the device is introduced by snapping into holes.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Market (5975939) in view of Solarz et al. (4460298).

Market shows all the features of this claim except a non-universal slot on a head of the screw. Such a feature is common knowledge. Solarz (Figure 5) shows non-universal slots on the head of a screw 10. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the instant invention to provide a non-universal slot as shown by Solarz because this would provide security as is well known and common knowledge.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Banas et al. (6398579).

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-2 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
